Foreword

THIS Bibliography of Robert Owen, an eminent Welshman, has been compiled to facilitate the collection of works written by him, and about him, in pursuance of one of the great aims of the National Library of Wales—to collect everything relating to the Principality and its people.

The extent of the literature by or relating to Owen, as here disclosed, may be briefly summarised:—

	Actual Number.	Separate Editions.
A. Robert Owen's own writings ..	84	149
B. Contemporary books and pamphlets (1812-1858) .. .. .	144	214
C. Later works .. .. .	44	65
D. Articles in periodicals .. .. .	28

The first section does not include the periodicals which Owen conducted, and it is probable that a number of locally published pamphlets belonging to section B have escaped record. Section D is certainly far from complete.

In the Bibliography, Owen's writings have been arranged chronologically in order to illustrate his political development, a title-index being added that easy reference may be made to new editions issued with variant titles. The items are numbered throughout to facilitate cross-reference; the addition of a letter to the number (as 144A, 144B, etc.) being due to the insertion of items after the numbering was cast.

The main sources of information are acknowledged on page 9. Special thanks for valuable assistance are due to the Librarian of the Goldsmiths' Library (University of London), the Librarian of the British Library of Political Science (University of London), the Chief Librarian of the Manchester Public Libraries, and the Rev. Richard Roberts, of Crouch End, who kindly allowed the use of a MS. bibliography compiled by himself. The list of portraits is largely from information supplied by the Secretary of the Robert Owen Memorial, Newtown, Montgomeryshire.
